College Library Aug.t 1813

This Catalogue as appears from the dedication was fi: nished in 1897 & besides containing a very distinct enu:
meration of the Books, M.S.S &c. and the last leaf con:
tains a very curious account of the Anatomical prepara:
tions (if they ought to be so called) in the possession of the University at that time.

A Skeleton of a French Man brought from Paris
by Doctor Michael Young who to dissipate Fear and make it at first sight, and then to dispute Fear and make
-ild at last speedale very familiar & ordinary of what we -mist all be at last. Presented the colledge therewith 1672.
This intirely and neatly done, and covered with a white sheet,
~ with three teeth wanting and four below & the fore-finger over cut of the right hand is deficient. Its hangs in a very convenient allong ~ of Timber which opening with the Doors exposes all parts to view.

Athive Temple of Ravelridge having upon the 14th day
